

From: dennis
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/8/01 12:33pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I side with the 9 states who would have Microsoft disclose the source code for IE. This should require all versions of IE. It would allow others to document the API without Microsoft having to disclose the source to Windows itself. Further, having a OS only version of Windows with no applications would give vendors a chance to make their systems unique and tailored to the use. Thank you.

Dennis R. Newton
4032 Hidden Spring Ct.
Fort Irwin, CA 92310